"SUFF" PICKETS GO TO HOSPITAL

Four Occoquan Prisoners Are Weak from Eating Rough Food.

Four of the six women pickets confined at the Occoquan workhouse have been placed in the hospital because of weakened condition.

The women have been unable to eat the prison food and the hardship of confinement has reduced them to the point where their health is threatened.

In the hospital they will be given special food and medical treatment.

The women in the hospital are Mrs. William Upton Watson and Miss Lucy Ewing, of Chicago; Miss Lavina Dock, of Pennsylvania, and Miss Natalie Gray, of Colorado.

Miss Burns Files Papers.

Alleged abuses at the Occoquan workhouse were yesterday reduced to charges when Miss Lucy Burns, of Cameron House, filed a complaint with District Commissioner Brownlow about the treatment received by the six pickets who are serving sentences of thirty days at the institution.

Miss Burns was accompanied to the District Building by Mrs. Abby Scott Baker and Miss Anne Martin. The latter furnished the surety for the pickets now out on bail.

They did not see Commissioner Brownlow, as he was out of the city, but left the following letter:

"As counsel for six women imprisoned for a month in the Occoquan workhouse, on the charge of obstructing traffic, I visited these prisoners on August 21, 22, and 25. I found them suffering from many causes, that on public grounds, ought to be instantly remedied.

"The prisoners for whom I am counsel, gave the following report on the food served them:

In amount it is ample, but in quality often unpalatable. The hominy, the chief article of the morning meal, is sour and dirty. The meat served at the midday meal is very tough and old and often tainted. The corn-bread served at dinner and supper cannot be eaten. One of the prisoners found worms in it. The soup served at dinner and supper is often very bad. As soup and corn bread are all that is served to the prisoners for supper, they have had on two occasions to my knowledge to go without supper altogether.

Cruelty Is Charged.

"Concerning the general conditions in the prison, I am inclosing with this letter affidavits of Mrs. Virginia Bovee and of Mrs. Robert Baker, who visited Occoquan on August 27. The prisoners for whom I am counsel are aware that cruel practices go on at Occoquan. On one occasion they heard Supt. Whitaker kicking a woman in the next room. They heard Mr. Whitaker's voice, the sound of the blows and the woman's cries."

PICKETS IN WRECK GOING TO OCCOQUAN

Auto in Collision; Miss Burns and Mrs. Dixon Slightly Hurt.

Two of the Cameron House pickets were "roughed up" yesterday on the road to the Occoquan workhouse and whether it was the fault of the chauffeur of their machine or that of the manipulator of the auto with which they collided, will have to be decided in the courts.

Miss Lucy Burns, acting general of Cameron House, and Mrs. Dixon, mother of one of the pickets, serving a 30-day sentence at Occoquan, were in the machine when the collision occurred. They knew nothing regarding what occurred previous to the crash, but were made aware of trouble when the machine turned over on its side.

SUMMONS BY POLICE PROTESTED AGAINST

Selective Men Object to Being Called by Officers in Uniform.

Vigorous protests have been registered with the local exemption boards because of the fact that men called to the colors are receiving their notification from the police.

The regulations call for a mailed notice and Postmaster Chance has agreed to send all the notices from local boards as special delivery communications. Despite this, some boards have turned their notices over to the police and the official summons has been delivered by men in police uniform.

A number of the men summoned have resented the visit by the police and while none question the legality of summons, they believe that mails should be used to notify selective men as cited in the official regulations of the provost-marshal general.

The District board acted upon the following exemption cases yesterday:

Joseph Charles Connell, granted; Carl M. Rathie, granted; Baxter Philip Hill, granted; Laurence E. Hawkins, denied; Benjamin H. Green, granted; Charles Alfred Colbert, granted; Walter Bailey, granted; Henry A. McDowell, denied; Ralph Thomas Davis, denied; Elmer Johnson, denied; Edward Lee Travis, allowed; Harold Winfield Holt, denied; George J. King, denied; William Harriech King, granted; Bernard Thomas, denied; Isaac Liepoff, denied; Isadore Sheeskin, denied; Leroy Butler, denied; Richard A. Foster, denied; Ernest S. Bennett, granted; Paul Harris, denied; John Armistead Austin, denied; Joseph Walter Morgan, denied; Thomas Chester Morgan, denied; Frank Ayer, denied.

TROOPS PACK HOUSE TO SEE VAUDEVILLE

Mascot Dogs of War Howl as Play Is Being Presented.

Roosting on telephone booths and rafters, bronzed engineers of the Second and Tenth Regiments packed the Y. M. C. A. Building at the American University last night to enjoy a vaudeville bill by a volunteer cast that would have done credit to a big time theater. Only 60 of them could get into the building, the other units being forced to listen from doors and windows.

Napoleon and Woodrow, aged and austere dog mascots of the regiments, wriggled between the legs on the outside and finally consolidated a commanding position in front of row A. These two veterans showed a disdainful indifference toward the program until A. B. Griffith began a realistic imitation of a dogfight. Be it known that these two were war dogs. Therefore they took it that a fight on the premises was their personal affair.

When they discovered that all the snarls and growls were issuing from the man on the stage they backed their protest against the hoax and left the room with their disgusted tails at mast in a chorus of whoops and laughter.

Mrs. Mabel Kipp-Lewis opened the bill with Scotch dialect stories that went straight to the hearts of her audience and put them in a perfect mood for what was to follow. She gave Edward Lyons, U. S. A., retired, put over a monologue that would have gone big even if it had not been that he spoke the inner language of his hearers. Theodore Hard told again the tale of the immortal Jim Bludsoe and J. Frank Duggan's songs were enthusiastically received. Transportation for the party was furnished by machines belonging to E. B. Thompson, Merle Thorpe, J. A. Whitfield, Mrs. Harmon and Mr. Drew.

Canada has the greatest railroad mileage per head of population of any country in the world.

HEBREW CONVENTION MEETS HERE SUNDAY

Prominent Speakers to Be Heard During Session.

Representative Julius Kahn, of California, and several prominent Washingtonians, are scheduled to deliver addresses at the third annual convention of the Young Men's Hebrew and kindred associations which opens at the Young Men's Hebrew Association Building Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Among the Washingtonians listed on the program to speak are Julius I. Feyser, well known to the legal profession in the District; Judge Milton Strausburger, president of the Federated Jewish Societies of Washington, and Dr. Cyrus Stimson, of the District War Service Commission.

The chief topic of discussion will be "Soldiers Welfare and Organization Work." The convention will embrace discussions on religious, educational, athletic and social features which is to be carried out by the association during the coming year.

The registration of the delegates, alternates, and visitors at the Y. M. H. Building Sunday morning, will mark the opening of the convention. A ball and reception Monday evening in the same building will be the concluding feature of the convention.

Officers will be elected and the reports of committees will be discussed at a business meeting Monday afternoon, when the selection of the next meeting place will also be made.

The committee in charge of the convention will be composed of Louise E. Spiegler, chairman; Miss Dora Weiss and Moses Offenberger, of Washington; Alfred Schreder and Eugene Schreder, of Norfolk, and Alfred E. Hirschberger, of Richmond.

THIEF STEALS $300 WORTH OF GOODS

Breaking down a rear window, a sneak thief yesterday afternoon entered the store of George Pitt and Company, 1225 Fourteenth street northwest, and stole a quantity of lace curtains and other articles, valued at approximately $300. No clue leading to the apprehension of the burglar has been found.

Among the articles taken are thirty pairs of lace curtains, valued at $125; seven yards of cream colored lace, one table runner, fifteen dozen white linen napkins, eight dozen linen towels and eleven linen table cloths.

SOCIALIST TO LECTURE.

George H. Goebel, Socialist National Committee member from New Jersey, will deliver a lecture on "The Rand School—Its Objects and Needs," at the Socialist party headquarters, 81 E street northwest, this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Rand School is the Socialist College of the United States. Mr. Goebel has been lecturing throughout the United States for some time in the interest of this school.

Gibbons Silent on Note.

Baltimore, Aug. 30.—Cardinal Gibbons refused to discuss President Wilson's reply to the Pope's peace note. Bishop Murray, of the Episcopal church, lauded the President, saying the reply is the complete rejoinder to peace proposals.

CROWDS CHEER 500 SOLDIERS FROM N. Y.

Regulars March Through Streets on Way to Fort Myer.

Marching through lanes of pleasure-seekers at Ninth and E streets and at other points along the route, 500 regulars of the United States army, on their way to Fort Myer from Fort Slocum, N. Y., sending up a thunderous chorus to the tune of "Over There," met with an enthusiastic demonstration on their arrival in this city last night.

People hanging out of the windows along the line of march caught the fever and broke into the first real patriotic demonstration of the war.

The tales floating from across the water about the cheering which greeted English Tommies, preparing to leave for the front, may now be met with a story rivaling that of the most feverish display of English patriotism.

And the boy soldiers, marching with their heads set proudly erect and with their lips curved in a smile, hinting of sternness swept grandly through the shouting mobs of Washingtonians who turned out to greet the prospective Sammies with words of encouragement.

The boys entrained at Twelfth street and Pennsylvania avenue for Fort Myer. They will form part of a regiment of field artillery, which will proceed to France after a short training period.

Complexion Lotion!

Use Fresh Lemons and Strain Juice

Any grocer will sell you two fresh lemons and your drug store will supply you with three ounces of orchard white. Put these in a bottle and shake well. Here you have a whole quart pint of the most wonderful lemon lotion at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams.

Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in; then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier.

Used by day, this sweetly fragrant lotion protects the skin from the evil effects of the weather and prevents roughness, redness, chafing and smarting. At night it works in the pores while you sleep, and is intended to bring a freshness and peach-like beauty that wins envy and admiration.

Just try it! Make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally helps to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It works marvelously on rough, red hands. Try it and see for yourself.—Adv.

Carry's
Delicious Ice Cream

HUNDREDS of Washington's enterprising stores---druggists, confectioners, delicatessen shops, groceries---as well as prominent hotels and restaurants are serving a delicious, new Ice Cream to their pleased patrons---an Ice Cream in every way worthy to be served in the Nation's Capital.

For several months we have been preparing for this event. Methodically, carefully, without the hurry and the rush which begets carelessness, we have set ourselves to the task of building a model Ice Cream plant.

First we established our own creameries, so that a constant, fresh, wholesome supply of cream will be forthcoming at all times. Then we called in the best specialists we could find in architecture, refrigeration, sanitation and Ice Cream making.

We studied modern Ice-Cream-making machinery and selected the very best. We searched the market for the acknowledgedly superior ingredients---flavors, syrups, sugars and fruits.

The best master maker of Ice Cream was secured, To assist him we engaged trained, competent and experienced men.

And we did it all deliberately, along carefully planned lines, because QUALITY was and is our first thought---quality that will amaze and at the same time satisfy all America---because at some time or other all America comes to Washington---quality which will rank with the standards of the Nation's Capital.

We realize full well that any success we may attain must be built on QUALITY, and we are determined that there shall be no shadow of failure in this direction.

Finally we decided to give the product an individual name.

"Carry's Delicious Ice Cream"

In a few days this name will be displayed all over Washington and the surrounding territory, and wherever it appears you will know that there Washington's newest Ice Cream is served. And when you have tried it we know you will agree with us that Washington HAS Ice Cream worthy of its traditions and prominence.
